" Among so many excellent Institutions, it is hardly fair to single out one for special notice, but the work done at the Royal Normal College for the Blind, Norwood, in developing the physical and mental powers of the inmates, and training them to occupations in which they can earn a living, seems to us exceptionally helpful.

" A good charity will always be supported, provided it is carried on with economy and courage."

Prospectus for 1914 and 1915.

Midsummer Holidays.—The Midsummer Holidays for 1914 will commence Tuesday and Wednesday, the 28th and 29th July, 1914.

Michaelmas Term.—The Michaelmas Term will commence Tuesday and Wednesday, the 22nd and 23rd September, 1914, and terminate Tuesday and Wednesday, the 22nd and 23rd December.

Easter Term, 1915.—The Easter Term will commence Tuesday and Wednesday, the 5th and 6th January, and terminate Tuesday and Wednesday, the 30th and 31st March.

Midsummer Term, 1915.—The Midsummer Term will commence Tuesday and Wednesday, the 13th and 14th April, and terminate Tuesday and Wednesday, the 27th and 28th July.

Visitors' Days.—These are held on the first Thursday of every month, except August, September, and January, from 3.15 to 5.15 p.m. Friends and supporters are requested to invite their friends to come and see the work in actual progress on these occasions. Cards of admission will be gladly supplied upon application to the Principal.

Collecting Cards for friends interested in aiding our national work may be obtained from the Principal.

Gardner Trust Scholarships.—A certain number of Scholarships of the value of £40, renewable annually, if conduct and progress are satisfactory, are open each year for competition to the Blind of England and Wales between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one, though in special cases this may be extended to twenty-seven. If successful in passing the Entrance Examination, Candidates are admitted to the College on a three months' probation. If this period is also satisfactorily passed then the "Probationer" is admitted and entered on the Register as a "Scholar."

Application forms are obtainable from the Principal.

Scholarship Examinations.—The Examinations for these Scholarships are held annually in the first week of March, July and December. Successful Candidates enter the College as "Probationers" in the Term following.

Candidates will be required to read and write Braille with facility and correctness: be well grounded in Arithmetic, History, and Geography, and be able to write an essay on any ordinary subject. The above subjects are essential, but credit will be given for knowledge of any standard book in prose or poetry, as well as practical acquaintance with other subjects.

In the case of a Candidate who has become blind after the age of sixteen and not had the opportunity of acquiring a knowledge of Braille since losing his sight, evidence of ability to acquire that knowledge will be regarded as satisfactory.

It is most important that parents and friends should enter intending Candidates for examination at the earliest moment possible, as successful Candidates are admitted strictly in the order in which their names are entered on the Register.

Pianoforte Tuning Department.—The College has Certified Piano Tuners with practical experience in its employ, for whom the Authorities are seeking employment. All orders for tuning will receive prompt and careful attention. For particulars, address: "MANAGER," TUNING DEPARTMENT, ROYAL NORMAL COLLEGE, UPPER NORWOOD, S.E. See also pp. 43-45.

The Typewriting Department is prepared to execute rapidly and accurately all descriptions of typewriting and duplicating. For estimates apply "TYPEWRITING DEPARTMENT," ROYAL NORMAL COLLEGE, UPPER NORWOOD, S.E.

The following Testimonials have been selected from many others received:—

"I am in receipt of your letter enclosing account for the reports which you have done for us. I am pleased to state that the work is quite satisfactory—in fact the best of the kind that we have ever had. I shall most certainly send you any further work of this sort that I may have and shall make known as widely as possible the first class way in which you turn out orders."
J. J. S.

"I have received the papers and am much pleased with them."

W. E. R.

" . . . . I have again to thank you for the excellent way in which the work is done. I cannot find any mistake in any of the three plays which your girls have done, and I shall not hesitate to recommend your typing and to speak in the highest terms of the efficiency of the work."

Obituary Notices.

The Committee very greatly regret being obliged to report the death of the following friends and supporters :—

The Rev. Canon Bell, M.A.,	}	Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee.
----------------------------	---	--

Captain A. Beaumont,	}	Members of the General Council.
Edward Nettleship, Esq.,
J. J. Plater, Esq.,
Andrew Whitley, Esq.,

Canon Bell, who was made a Canon of Sarum in 1887, and had filled the position of Headmaster of Christ's Hospital, Principal of Queen's College, London, Chairman of the Teachers' Registration Council, etc., yet found time to join the Executive Committee of the College in 1904, and work faithfully on its behalf. The following resolution of condolence was unanimously passed by the Committee :—

“ That the Executive Committee of the Royal Normal College for the Blind desire to express to Mrs. Bell and the family of the late Rev. Canon Bell their sincerest sympathy for the bereavement they have sustained. By the death of Canon Bell the Committee feel that they have lost not only a valued honorary official, but a colleague and friend who had endeared himself to each and every member. His kindly and tactful advice was always of great value in promoting the welfare of the College, and his loss will be most deeply felt.”

Edward Nettleship, Esq., joined the General Council in 1887, and was still a member at the time of his death. From 1887 to 1889 Mr. Nettleship acted as Hon. Ophthalmic Surgeon to the College, discharging his duties with a kindness and zeal that were greatly appreciated by the College Authorities.

J. J. Plater, Esq. (Blind), was a very successful manufacturer of Birmingham. The firm is being carried on by his sons.

Report of the Executive Committee.

Last year the Committee endeavoured to make clear the grounds upon which the College based its claim to receive the support and assistance of the Charitable Public.

The objects, cost, results and needs were fully explained, but, in spite of all this the financial position of the College (the College is without endowment) continues to cause the gravest anxiety to the Committee.

In addition to securing an Annual Income from Donations and Subscriptions of at least £4,000,

£2,000 is urgently required for erecting a properly equipped building for housing the Tuning and Typewriting Departments. Unless this sum is forthcoming, the Government Grant will be withdrawn and this most important branch of the College work severely crippled.

£1,000 for a Sanatorium.

£200 for repairing the Swimming Bath.

At present its back is broken and it is quite unusable. This is a great loss to the pupils, both from the point of view of development as well as recreation. The College was the first Institution for the Blind to successfully teach swimming and life-saving, and it will be sad indeed if instruction in this useful art cannot be recommenced.

There remains too the nightmare of the Banker's loan of £3,000 with its annual interest.

For forty-two years proofs have been abundant as to the benefits this College has conferred upon the Blind, not only of the Empire, but the world.

The following report from the Board of Education by five of His Majesty's Inspectors, who visited the College between the 1st January and the 31st July, carefully summarises its aims, objects and methods, and affords still further proof.

"1. Scope of the Report.—This report deals with the work carried on in the Institution under the Board's Regulations for Technical Schools, etc.

"2. Administration.—The College is under the control of a Council, acting through an Executive Committee.

"The College has suffered a great loss during the year by the retirement of the aged Principal, Sir Francis Campbell, who has for over forty years held a unique position as a pioneer of education for the Blind in the country. Under the organising powers of Sir Francis, the Norwood Institution has grown from small beginnings to its present complex and active departments, including the Academy of Music, Training College for Teachers, Technical School, Physical Training School, and Elementary School and Kindergarten Department. The Institution is arranged to provide a course of complete training for the Blind from the earliest years of School life until the attainment of wage-earning proficiency.

"The changes in the past year have resulted in the appointment of Sir Francis Campbell's son, Mr. Guy Campbell, as Principal of the Institution. In the course of inspection and a subsequent interview with the Committee, attention was drawn to outstanding questions relating to premises and organisation, including the important matter of medical inspection and supervision of the pupils. All who are connected with the Institution will realise the importance of maintaining its high traditions in the history of education for the Blind in this country, and of making every endeavour so to arrange for its future administration as to maintain its many activities at the level required by modern aims and ideals.

"3. Aim of the Technical Classes.—The aim of the technical classes is to provide training, after School age, in typewriting, music, and pianoforte repairing and tuning for men, and in music, typewriting and shorthand for women. It has always been the aim of the Norwood authorities to seek for their students careers which make a high intellectual demand on the individual, and for this reason the ordinary industries for which Blind people are fitted, such as basketry, mat-making, hand-loom weaving, have not been taken up, but have been left to other Institutions to develop.

"4. Classes in Physical Training.—The scheme for Physical Training is a feature of outstanding importance. A special gymnasium is provided, elaborately fitted up with mechanism for fully developing the activity of every group of muscles. There is provision, also, for Swedish exercises, swimming, life-saving, cycling, skating, boating, dancing, and daily walks in the spacious grounds. The present Principal has made himself responsible for this department for many years. The scheme of exercises is based on the pre-eminent need of physical activity for the Blind, a necessity which their ordinary mode of life cannot possibly secure.

"5. Classes in Music.—The musical instruction is excellent. The teaching of Harmony deserves special mention. It is necessarily based on careful ear-training in the early stages, and is graded throughout the classes. As the same methods are used by all the teachers, the results in the higher classes are most satisfactory. The choir sang some part-songs with a delicacy of style and finish that only those possessing genuine feeling can achieve. The instrumental playing is remarkably good. Some valuable lectures and recitals are given periodically by members of the Staff.

"The Curriculum is admirably adapted to the end which the College has in view, that is, sound, practical musicianship.

"The College is fortunate in the possession of an excellent musical Staff, which, it is interesting to note includes several former students.

"The pianoforte department suffers from being housed in premises which are unsuitable for teaching, and unhealthy. It is understood, however, that there is every hope of their being reconstructed at an early date.

"6. Classes in Typewriting and Shorthand.—On the occasion of inspection, 9 male students and 24 female students were enrolled for Typewriting. All the male students and twenty of the female students were over 16 years of age. Nine female students, who were over 16 years of age, were enrolled for Shorthand.

"Typewriting includes copying, writing from dictation, the laying out of statistical and tabular matter, writing from Shorthand notes, and stencil cutting. Remarkably good work is done, the tabulations being of conspicuous excellence.

"Shorthand cannot be begun before the students have attained to a high degree of proficiency in ordinary Braille reading. Although the system of embossed dots permits of only a limited number of symbols, students attain to a speed of 80 or 90 and in some cases of even 100 words a minute.

"The Head of the Department is a most efficient and zealous teacher.

"Ample and varied provision is made by the authorities for the general welfare of the students, and they are fortunate in possessing extensive grounds of which the students have unrestricted use."

Signed—Mr. W. Gannon, H.M.I., Miss B. M. Cunningham, H.M.I., Dr. A. Eichholz, H.M.I., Mr. A. Kahn, H.M.I., Mr. G. T. Shaw, H.M.I.

Most gratefully do the Committee acknowledge the receipt of a grant of £50 from the above Fund and they beg respectfully to tender their most sincere thanks to Her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, for having so graciously considered and approved their application.

The Committee desire to again express their deep indebtedness Gardner Trust, to the Gardner Trust for continuing their generous help in granting Scholarships.

The Committee gratefully thank each and every member Staff. of the Staff for the zeal, energy, and loyal enthusiasm they devote to their work. They regret that they have lost the services of Mr. Irvine, Miss Caven, and Miss Ray, who for so many years faithfully discharged their duties.

The Committee are pleased to be able to report that in July Medical and Dental Inspection and Supervision. a complete scheme for the Medical and Dental Inspection and Supervision of the pupils in accordance with the suggestions of H.M. Inspectors was inaugurated, and is already proving its utility.

The College Authorities supported this in the early part of Mental Deficiency Bill. the year, and in November, after the Bill became law, Miss Garaway and Mr. Evans, representing the Association of Teachers of the Blind, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Stainsby, representing the College of Teachers of the Blind, and Lady Campbell and the Principal on behalf of the Training College Department of the College, were invited to appear before the Board of Control and express their views as to how the Bill should be interpreted as regards the Blind. These views are summarised as follows :—

1. Segregation of the mentally defective Blind from the normal Blind.
2. Segregation of the sexes.
3. One or two Schools to be specially erected to provide accommodation for the mentally defective Blind of school age.
4. After the child is certified by the teacher and the medical officer as unsuitable for retention in the ordinary school or class, it should be placed as soon as possible in one of the schools provided for the mentally defective.
5. Buildings to be erected to secure classification and provide transference as the inmates are improved by the training.

6. Sites chosen to be in a country neighbourhood with spacious grounds.
7. Homes in addition to the Schools to be provided for those over school age, preferably in the country, where training shall be continued, and occupation provided.

Annual Prize
Festival.

The Annual Prize Festival was held at the College on Thursday, the 10th July, 1913. Lord Lamington, who was accompanied by Lady Lamington, presided. The Countess of Scarbrough presented the prizes and the Rev. Prebendary H. W. Webb-Peploe, M.A., delivered an address.

Lord Lamington said :—

"I have so often had the privilege of addressing those who come to the different functions connected with this College for the Blind, that I do not intend to intrude much upon your notice this afternoon. I would rather leave it to the Rev. Prebendary Webb-Peploe to deal with the matter as contained in the Annual Report.

"Perhaps I am rather less inclined to add to my usual remarks by the fact that I feel rather disappointed. Last year we made a very strenuous appeal, and continued to try and work up that appeal, to get additional funds, so that the debt that is already round about this Institution should not be annually increased. But I regret to say that there has been no adequate response to the effort to get rid of the great anxiety that is entertained by all those who are responsible for the carrying on of the work of this College for the Blind. I would it were otherwise! Last year, you will remember, witnessed the most eventful incident that has occurred in connection with the life of the College, in the retirement from it of Sir Francis Campbell, who was one of the founders and the mainstay of the College during the whole course of its existence up to that time. I then thought that on such an occasion as that the public would have come forward and put this College on a sound financial basis, not only for the sake of those who have benefited by the instruction and training that is here given, but also to give that greatest satisfaction possible to Sir Francis and Lady Campbell, who made the work of their College their very heart's work. I still hope that the public will give adequate funds for the maintenance and the carrying on of all that is done within these grounds.

"I must also make allusion to the fact that the Executive Committee have sustained a great loss by the death of Canon Bell, who was always most assiduous in his attention to the work that lay before the Committee. I, as Chairman, deeply lament his loss.

"I now will not detain you longer. I have spoken so often about the intention, the object, the methods of this College, of the wonderful results that have been attained, of the satisfaction that we can know with certainty that those who have been the recipients of the instruction given here, instead of leading lives dependent upon the help of others, have been able to go out to all parts of the world as men and women who have their own means and everything to support themselves in life. They have been able to have bright and sunny lives, instead of those of hopeless despair. I am not going this afternoon over all the ground I have so often trodden; but I do trust that all of you who are good enough to come here will, by every means in your power, help us, and induce your friends and acquaintances to come forward and alleviate the anxiety of those who are responsible for the work here."

The Rev. Prebendary H. W. Webb-Peploe, M.A., then said :—

"Lord Lamington, Ladies and Gentlemen :—The first thing a man has to do is to repent of his sins ; and in looking into the Report just now that Lord Lamington allowed me to examine, I discovered that my subscription, formerly paid to this work, has not been paid this year ! I beg to apologise for this omission, and ask every one here who is guilty to see that their banker has a little money drawn from him. Will you kindly remember that, if you please.

"Secondly, I want to interest those before me, and I might also say those on my left and behind, in this work. We live in an age of very startling quickness in almost every subject, and I think we have to take note of the signs and symptoms we observe. There are in the activity of the present day, of course, certain dangers. The first is that the weak and uninfluential become neglected altogether, because there is no time for the active, the energetic and the determined to think of their poorer and weaker brethren. Now that is not what ought to be. Those who are really the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ must find time to think of all the weaker and the helpless especially ; and they ought to remember that if God has been pleased to endow them with any particular faculties and opportunities, it is the highest honour that they can have to be allowed to minister to the helpless and the needy. And, perhaps of all who are born into this world under the cloud of affliction, we must say that the Blind appear to us the most necessary for us to think of. Yet through God's gracious providence and goodness the Blind have stepped into an entirely new position, by which they are able to take their place in the battle of life, and to fend for themselves in a very remarkable way.

"Of all institutions that are helping the Blind, perhaps this College at Norwood is the most blessed. Those who have watched the career of Alfred Hollins the organist—and he nearly came to me as organist at St. Paul's, Onslow Square—must observe that God has given to him a most remarkable gift. And those of you who have heard the music this afternoon, will agree that it shows that the Blind are not behind in many ways, but are provided by God with the Law of Compensation.

"It lies with us to encourage those who have peculiar gifts, as the Blind possess, and to see if we cannot uplift them in this day of strange activity, when those who seem to be wanting are left behind in the march, and I have grieved to think that those who need much are left by their neighbours.

"Five hundred and forty students have graduated from this Institution since 1872, and five hundred and five are now earning their own living as free and independent agents, not hanging on the hand of charity. The Government and public bodies help to the extent of about one third of the total cost, which is about £9,500. About one-third is paid by parents and friends, leaving one third, at least, say, £3,500, that ought to be found by a generous public. There ought never to be a need on the part of those who manage this splendid Institution of begging in a weak and feeble way from the public, but the money that is required ought to be liberally sent in. I ask you to minister generously, as you are able, not only to-day but regularly towards the expenditure incurred in keeping up this Institution.

"I am specially asked, in a letter Mr. Campbell wrote me, to mention that £2,000 is urgently required for a building in which typewriting and piano tuning may be properly arranged. Will you kindly see to it, if you can, so that some such sum as that is sent in. And we surely have to thank Lord Howard do Walden for the most generous promise he made last year of £5,000 towards the endowment of this Institution. So I leave the matter in your hands, thanking Mr. Campbell for asking me, and thanking Lord Lamington for allowing me to speak, and Lady Scarbrough for coming to give away the prizes, which she will now do. Will you help in every way you can?"

The Countess of Scarbrough then very graciously presented the prizes.

The Principal said :—

"My Lord, Lady Scarbrough, Ladies and Gentlemen:—The remarks that have fallen from Lord Lamington and Prebendary Webb-Peploe pointed out to you that we have graduates in all parts of the world. By that I mean students who have gone out to try and act as missionaries in other parts of the world, where nothing much was being done for the Blind. It is an extraordinary thing that within the last twenty-four hours, three letters have come from three different parts of the world telling what they are doing. One is from Elsie Bausor, who left last year to go out to Ceylon, in order to help start a school for the Blind there. In the letter she explains how she has commenced teaching two little boys; and that in order to teach them she has had to translate Tamil into Braille, so that she can give them some idea of reading. There are 3,757 blind people in Ceylon. Their school was opened in 1912, and they are now about to commence their building. I think that will give you some idea of what Lord Lamington and Prebendary Webb-Peploe meant by the spreading of the light by the Blind.

"Mr. Layton sends £5 for a prize, but as it only arrived this morning and he has attached certain conditions, it will have to be organised into a competition, and be held, if possible, before the end of the term.

"Now there are only just two more things I want to try and draw your attention to. You have been told by the speakers and by myself that the work is going on, not only here, but in all parts of the world. All that is wanted is powder and shot and commissariat. Are you not going to give us that? Do you mean to tell me that British people, who love fair-play, and who believe in the greatest of all traits of Christian character, love and charity, are going to allow this work of making blind men and women fit and capable to go out and be worthy of their manhood and womanhood, to languish? Are you going to tell Lord Lamington and the Committee that they must haul down their flag, that they must curtail this work? Surely not! Surely you will go away and spread the knowledge of what is done. If only every one who has sight would contribute one-eighth of a penny per year, every person of the thirty-two thousand Blind in this country could be properly provided with an education and training, or if they were too old for that, would receive comfort to the end of their days. Are you not going to do that very little thing? If not, why, we must be in a parlous state indeed!

"And I am sure you are going to join with us in thanking Lady Scarbrough for presenting the prizes in the kindly and gracious way she has done. I express, on your behalf and my own and that of the pupils, the hope that although this is only the first visit, it may not be the last."

The resolution was unanimously and heartily carried.

The Countess of Scarbrough responded as follows:—

"I thank you very, very much for the kind welcome you have given me. I am sure this Institution wants money, and it must not want in vain, must it, Mr. Campbell? You are all strangers to me, but I am very, very glad to be here, and to give what little help I can, and to present the prizes."

Lord Lamington :—

"Lady Scarbrough has responded very feelingly and touchingly to the vote of thanks you were good enough to pass, but I just want to say one word, and that is to thank Mr. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, and all the staff who carry on the work here, for their constant care, and for the excellent way in which they discharge their very multifarious duties. Without them we know this Institution could not be carried on successfully, but with them we are able to turn out these sightless people in a manner which has already been described. I only wish to say that because I want to express my acknowledgment to them all for the excellent work which they perform."

The prize distribution was followed by a gymnastic display.

In December the Court Operatic Society gave three performances of Edward German's Opera, "Tom Jones," in aid of the College Funds at the Royal Court Theatre, Sloane Square. Musically and dramatically the performances were of unusual excellence and gained high praise from the Press. After all expenses were paid a cheque for £63 8s. 8d. was forwarded to the College, which the Committee gratefully acknowledged.

The Christmas Festival was held on Friday, the 23rd January, 1914, when there was a large attendance. Sir Melvill Beachcroft presided, and besides Lady Beachcroft there were present Lord Lamington, Sir John Brickwood, General Beeching, Colonel Frederick and Mrs. Campbell, Lieut. Colonel G. Mackinlay, the Hon. Mrs. Lawson Johnston, Mrs. Evan Spieer, Mrs. Denton, the Mayor and Mayoress of Lambeth, the Mayor of Stepney, Dr. Richmond pro the Mayor of Bermondsey, Councillor and Mrs. Lang-Sims, Rev. R. B. Taylor, Rev. J. Sharp, Dr. Henderson, and many others.

After an organ recital by Edwin Parkinson, A.R.C.O., in the Gardner Hall, an excellent concert was given.

Sir Melvill Beachcroft, who had risen from a sick bed to be present, said :—

"We have just heard a charming Irish folk-song without words, and I regret that it is impossible to give a speech in the same way. The College has now been in existence for forty years, under the direction of Sir Francis Campbell. It has not been my good fortune to visit it before, but as I am closely associated with four great works in which the Blind are considered, my presence is perhaps justified. The County Council, of which I have been Chairman, now have nine special schools for the Blind, some of whose pupils find their way to the Royal Normal College. As a governor of Christ's Hospital, I have to do with that properly, which is able to give about 800 pensions annually to Blind people; as Chairman of the Social Welfare Committee, which exists for co-ordinating good work, I find that while in 1800 there were only four institutions for the Blind, to-day there are 144, while as Master of the Clothworkers' Company, whose generosity towards education is well known, I hope I may induce them to do something for the Blind. I am an old public school boy myself, and therefore I enjoy coming to a great public school like the Royal Normal College for the Blind. I remember with regret that I did very little to help myself when I was a boy at Harrow. I realise how much more I might have done if I had taken a real interest in my school work, and therefore I cannot help saying to my brothers and sisters on the platform that it depends much more upon yourselves than upon your teachers whether you derive full benefit from your educational course. There is no question whatever about it so far as you, my brothers and sisters, are concerned, that it is essentially important that you should be really earnest in your desire to derive all the benefit you can from your studies, because of course you are naturally handicapped, and you have to meet a stronger competition than those of us who see. It is not sufficient for you to be in the first flight as regards the actual objects that you aim at—music or shorthand or typewriting or piano-tuning—it is not sufficient to be in the first flight in that particular connection; you must make yourselves generally well-educated so as to be able to succeed in the race of life, and you will find that if in addition to being perfect at the piano-tuning and in arithmetic, if side by side with that you are sufficiently well-trained to be able to compete with other people in other subjects, your success in life will be more assured.

"May I say how much I wish this College success in the coming year. I wish all you young people a very happy Christmas, and that each year will find you better equipped for the race of life. Remember there is no occupation, no profession you are not fitted to fill, provided you take advantage of the educational opportunities that are offered to you."

Lady Beacherot unveiled the magnificent Christmas tree, the gift of Mr. William Tebb, of Rede Hall, Horley, and then presented to Isabella Vass the gold chain and medal given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hollins to the student chosen by her companions as possessing the most kind, genial and obliging manners during the year.

Lord Lamington then proposed a vote of thanks to Lady Beacherot.

Mr. Gny Campbell, the Principal, in seconding, informed the audience that pupils during the year had obtained organ appointments in places as far apart as South Africa, Cornwall, Wales and Upper Norwood.

With regard to the piano tuning three appointments had been obtained; two in London and one in Glasgow. Taking the examinations in music, of the Royal Academy, Royal College of Music and the Associated Board, five had been successful on the organ, eight on the pianoforte. And lastly at Oxford, three were successful in passing Responsions and are now preparing to become clergymen; this brings the number of those who have gone from the College for this purpose to seven. He also pointed out that Mr. Nakamura, a blind gentleman, was studying the methods of the College on behalf of the Japanese Government until Easter. He had already spent some time at Nottingham, Birmingham, and Edinburgh, and was now finishing at the College. On his return to Japan, he will travel through the country as Government Adviser and Organiser to the Blind Schools. He also said that Mr. A. K. Shah, Headmaster of the Calcutta Blind Institution, arrived from India last Sunday to obtain information about Norwood methods, and he was also staying at the College. Thus the College was not only helping the Blind of the Empire, but was spreading the light of its knowledge. In previous years they had had students from France, Russia and Germany.

The vote having been passed, Sir Melvill Beachcroft responded on behalf of Lady Beachcroft, and the proceedings closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

A repeat performance for the parents and friends of the pupils was given on Saturday evening, the 24th, the Rev. Cart de Lafontaine occupying the Chair.

A glance at the statement of accounts, pages 60-63, shows that the deficit for 1913 is £500 less than in 1912, viz., <sup>Finance and Appeal.</sup> £895 as against £1,397, but also most unfortunately the accounts show there has been a falling off in donations and subscriptions of nearly £400.

Let it not be forgotten that it is cheaper to educate than to pauperise.

Education and training are in most instances the blind man's only capital, but he is usually too poor to obtain that capital without financial help from his sighted brothers and sisters. Is it not the duty of every citizen to give the blind boy and the blind girl this chance?

Signed on behalf of the Committee.

LAMINGTON,

Obituary Notices.

Lucy O'Brien, who graduated in 1887, passed away on the 2nd November. Another graduate thus speaks of her in the "Braille Review" for December:—"The whole profession will be the poorer for the loss of Miss Lucy O'Brien, for her teaching was of the very highest type, and her noble work amongst the Blind will be remembered for many a long day to come. She was one who, whilst she held that "Knowledge is Power," believed that Character is something infinitely more, and that, unless right principles are thoroughly instilled into a child, all else is of little avail. She was a student of the Royal Normal College for the Blind, and amongst the many floral tributes sent was a beautiful wreath from Sir Francis and Lady Campbell, one from some of the teachers and pupils of the College, and a lovely cross of flowers from the Staff of the Royal Blind Asylum, Glasgow, where she taught for some years. Her life was a living example of uprightness and godliness, and we shall always think of her as one who tried to follow very closely in the steps of the only Perfect Teacher."

Lucy O'Brien was working at the Swansea Institution for the Blind at the time of her death.

Alfred C. Baynon, of Bristol. Baynon entered the College on the 7th January, 1874, and graduated in July, 1875.

Principal's Annual Report.

Staff.

The Principal has regretfully to report the resignations of Mr. C. Irvine, Miss Caven and Miss M. E. Ray. Mr. Irvine had been connected with the Pianoforte Tuning Department twenty years; but the death of his wife and his own increasing age and infirmity led him to relinquish his work at the College. Ill-health and ever growing deafness were the causes in Miss Caven's case; she had been Matron of the Girls' School for ten years. Miss Ray, who had been principally in charge of the Kindergarten Department and younger girls for eight and a half years, resigned in order to accompany her married sister to British Columbia. Mrs. Russell has replaced Miss Caven, Miss Bedford of Derby, Miss Ray and Miss C. Campbell, Miss Paulling.

Successes.

This has been a record year in all departments.

A progressive and co-ordinated scheme of aural training has been introduced, by which the hearing and rhythmic faculties are developed in a systematic way from early childhood, and upon which the study of Harmony and Composition can be based with increased success. Much is also hoped from this scheme of class-work in developing the powers of the pupils in an instrumental direction.

Employment.

Music and Tuning.—Edward Austin has gone to the Montreal School for the Blind, recently founded by Philip Layton, a former graduate, to take charge of the Music and Piano-tuning.

Organ.—Andrew Fraser has been appointed Organist to the Wesleyan Church, Upper Norwood; James Johns to the Parish Church, Port Talbot; Horace Smaldon to the Parish Church, Hayle, Cornwall; and Andries Van Velden has returned to South Africa to take up a position in Paal.

Pianoforte-tuning.—Christopher Gilbert has taken up employment with Messrs. Sherwin & Sons, of Hanley, Staffordshire; John Goddard with Messrs. Witton & Witton, of Finsbury Park, London; James Gordon with Messrs. Ewing & Mackintosh (former graduates of the College), in Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow; Stanley Spittle with Messrs. Southam (Cooper), Tottenham, London, N. James Ingham, of Greetland, near Halifax, and Richard C. Johnstone, of Carlisle, are making a start, while Ernest Best and Frederick Duffin, who left at Christmas, are commencing work at Weymouth and Sittingbourne respectively.

Of the girls, Lily Adshead in Mexborough, Florence Foster at Horden, in Durham, and Dolly Giles at Frogmore, Wilts. are working up teaching connections. Daisy Weatherly is more than busy executing typewriting orders.

Many letters were received in reply to our Christmas letter and the following extracts show how our graduates are doing:—

"During the past year my work has continued steadily, in fact I may say that I am busier this year than I have been formerly. I gave my annual recital in the Church in October, and in February last our choir and musical association gave a performance of Handel's 'Acis and Galatea.' We expect to give a rendering of Haydn's Oratorio, 'The Creation,' on the 27th February of next year. Then I have had the usual Corporation recitals, last December in the Art Galleries, last week in St. Andrew's Hall, and I am again playing in the Art Galleries next April. Besides all this, my teaching connection is increasing, and I cannot complain with regard to tuning. I have also acted as adjudicator in connection with the appointment of organists to other churches. In July, my wife and I paid our third visit to Denmark since we were married. We have been thinking that if all goes well, we might come to London in July next, but of course we have decided nothing as yet."—T. C. G., Dennistoun.

"I am now at the close of my fifth complete year, and I am glad to say that I find that during the year 1913 I have been able to more than double the business of 1910."—S. A. B., Earlswood.

"I gave a lecture the other evening to a Literary Society in this town on 'The Teaching of the Blind.' My lecture, I feel, created considerable interest and was appreciated—for people have been most kind in their comments. I am pleased to tell you I was elected in November Organist to this Masonic Lodge."—L. S., Windermere.

"I had the whole of the church work on my hands during my chief's holiday in the summer—which was unfortunately lengthened to some two months by an accident to himself. When he came back, he told me he had never found his boys in better condition after taking a holiday. I was all the better pleased with this, because we do not slack off during the summer, but do just the same sort of music for the services as at other times, even to our choral celebration once a month. At Christmas he presented me with a copy of the vocal score of Wagner's 'Ring,' as a mark of his appreciation—and he is not one of those who say very much when they are satisfied. On the whole, I think I am right in feeling encouraged by my last year's experiences."—H. V. S., Portsmouth.

"I am very pleased to be able to tell you that I now have twelve pupils, the last one being a younger sister to a little girl whom I have been teaching for some time. It is gratifying to know that they are satisfied. I also get some singing engagements, through having joined the Wimbledon Church Choral Society, where Mr. Bates, the conductor, and Miss Chalmers, who accompanies for the Society, are doing all in their power to give me opportunities. Through the kind interest of the latter, I have been engaged for the 22nd of this month by the Wimbledon and District Scots' Association, to sing at a concert-lecture which is being given to celebrate Burns' anniversary."—M. S., Wimbledon.

"My church work continues much as usual, but I feel that my boys have of late made a step forward in the direction of greater musical appreciation. This I regard as largely due to the fact that I have been enabled, by looking after the singing at St. Barnabas' School, to introduce a higher standard of music. The 'Viking's Song,' and 'Drake's Drum,' by Coleridge Taylor, are in great favour, and some two-part canons by Arthur Richards are also very much appreciated. Just before Christmas I took on some new work, in the shape of choir training for the vicar of Southleigh, a small village about nine miles from Oxford. I go there every Wednesday, and stay the night at the vicarage, there being no train back after 7.25."—H. C. W., Oxford.

"This year has been rather an exceptionally good one as far as work goes; I have done very well both in tuning and teaching."—W. G., Durham.

"Before closing this letter, I would like to pay a tribute of testimony to Mr. Goddard and his friend, whom you tell me are employed by Messrs. Witton Witton & Co. (pianoforte manufacturers). Messrs. W. Brunt & Sons, Bristol, stock Witton's pianos, and a good many of them fall into my hands to tune, but I have so little to do to them, as they leave the factory in such heartful tuning order, which speaks well for Mr. Goddard and others starting out from the College into the world."—W. S. A., Bristol.

"The year which has just ended has been fairly prosperous considering the condition of this particular place. My teaching connection is steadily growing, though one is here compelled to give organ lessons at a lower rate than is customary for piano tuition in England. My work at the church still continues to give entire satisfaction, and my vicar and wardens regard me as a personal friend and fellow-worker rather than a servant. Last Good Friday evening our choir, numbering forty-five voices, gave a splendid rendering of Stainer's 'Crucifixion,' which created a great sensation throughout the town. In November I read a paper, entitled 'Music, an Aid to Worship,' at a meeting of the Church of England Men's Society, which was evidently much appreciated, and I have been asked to repeat it in the various surrounding districts."—S. H. A., Haverfordwest.

"You will be pleased to hear that the past year has also been quite a successful one with me. I am able to report an increase in each branch of my work. Tuning has brought in more this year than in any previous one, my pupils have increased in number, now totalling seventeen; and my newspaper work has also progressed very satisfactorily.

"During last year I delivered five musical lectures. I am enclosing two of the programmes, which you may read with some interest. You will see by one of these that I work a little in conjunction with our friend Haller at Boston. When I tell you that my net profit for the year shows an increase of 20 per cent., you will probably be satisfied that I am making very fair progress."—P. T. K., Alford.

"On Wednesday evening a farewell social meeting and presentation to Mr. R. Leitch, organist of St. Columba U.F. Church, took place in the hall of the church, when there was a large attendance of office-bearers, members of the congregation and choir.

"Mr. James Pattison, in handing over to Mr. Leitch a silver-mounted walking-stick and a well-filled purse of sovereigns, referred to the highly efficient manner in which Mr. Leitch had discharged his duties. His gift of music, his courage and his high Christian character made them as a congregation, and indeed the community, the losers through his departure. They trusted he would have every happiness and great blessing in the new and wider sphere of usefulness he was about to occupy.

"Mr. J. F. Adams, as a member of the congregation, said he had great pleasure in being associated with the evening's proceedings. They felt that they were losing not only a very capable and gifted musician, but one who had endeared himself to his choir, and one who was held in the highest esteem by them all. Knowing Mr. Leitch as they did, they never looked for, and certainly never got, any of those flippant voluntaries which, while so pleasing to the ear, did not aid in their worship and praise of God. Their friend's playing was always helpful and in the true spirit of worship, and full of reverence.

"Rev. Thomas Gregory also expressed the pleasure and help Mr. Leitch's services had been to him, and referred to the importance and inspiration good music had, and the place it occupied in the service of the church."

"The Kilmacolin Advertiser"

Through the continued generosity of the London Concert Agents the pupils were enabled to attend recitals by Mark Hambourg, Isolaue Harvey, and others, also of hearing the Edward Mason, Smallwood & Metcalfe, and Bach Choirs, as well as the Crystal Palace Orchestral and Dulwich Philharmonie Concerts. The College authorities are especially indebted to the London Symphony Orchestra for sending tickets for seven of their own Concerts, the Saint-Saëns Festival and the British Chamber Music Concerts. Mr. Bannister Howard again granted facilities for the pupils to attend the Sullivan Operas by the D'Oyley Carte Co., and all the plays during the season. Special thanks are also due to Mr. George O. Starr, the Manager of the Crystal Palace, for providing the students with seats for the Tetrzzini, Melsa and the Lord Mayor's Concerts.

Lectures were given in the College Hall by Miss E. P. Hughes, late Principal of the Cambridge Training College, on "Brittany"; Mr. Walter Dixon, "Thoughts on Alfred the Great"; Mr. E. Blair, Browning's "Saul"; Mr. Barlow, "Shakespeare's Clowns"; Mr. Eagle, "The Natural History of Shakespeare"; and Miss Gardner, "The Blind of Japan."

The British Empire Shakespeare Society gave at their Readings, "King John," "Two Gentlemen of Verona," and "King Lear." Mr. Hart, the Hon. Secretary, gave a special reading of "Paolo and Francesea."

Miss Gladys Newth gave a delightful entertainment of Song and Recitation early in the year.

Mr. Balfour, Mr. Fryer and Mr. Friskin continued their weekly Recitals on the Organ and Piano.

During the year Mr. Stewart Macpherson completed a Course of Lectures upon the Symphony and the Concerto, and in the concluding Lectures of this course he dealt particularly with Brahms' Symphony in F, and the same master's Violin Concerto. In the Christmas term, he delivered a series on "Some Principles Underlying the Teaching of Music."

Concerts,
Demonstrations, etc., given by the Pupils.

In January Wilfrid Kershaw played the Schumann Concerto with the Rochdale Philharmonic Orchestra in the Town Hall. He also played in Littleborough with conspicuous success on the 4th February and at Streatham in May.

During January, February, March and April Recitals were given by graduates of the College on the new organ in the Palm Court at Messrs. Selfridge's. The Recitals were well attended, and judging from the applause much enjoyed.

On the 23rd February, the Choir gave a Concert in connection with Christ Church, Croydon.

Two of the junior girls again read portions of Scripture from Braille at the Annual General Meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society held in the Guildhall on the 10th March, under the Chairmanship of the Lord Mayor of London.

On the 4th October a junior girl read at the Centenary Meeting of the Wesleyan Missionary Society at the New Central Hall, Westminster.

On the 7th and 8th April the pupils provided the music and assisted in the Gymnastic Display of the Second Annual Gathering of the Physical Culture Classes of Croydon in the Scarbrook Road Baths Hall. Sir Frederick Edridge, ex-Mayor, presided on the Monday, Lord Lamington attending and speaking, while Alderman Trumble, the Deputy-Mayor presided on Tuesday.

The Choir provided the music for the Annual Meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society, at the Croydon Public Hall, on the 22nd April; the Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Alliance at the King's Hall, Holborn, Lord Kinnaird presiding, on the 19th May; a Meeting of the Upper Norwood Total Abstinence Society on the 27th May; Dr. Newnham's Lecture in the College Hall, 3rd June; South Croydon Congregational Church, in aid of its Organ Fund, 23rd October; the Norman Lord Dinner, Holborn Hall, 25th October; Park Hall, Sydenham, 3rd November; the Co-operative Institute, Woolwich, 15th November; the Annual Concert at Crouch Hill for the "North London Homes for Aged Christian Blind Men and Women," 28th November; and the Parochial Hall, Croydon, 1st December.

The Senior Boys held their Sports on the 5th July, the Junior Sports' Days. Boys on the 12th, and the Girls on the 16th. 32 feet 7 inches won the prize with the Senior Boys for the putting a ten pound shot; high jumping came to grief at 4 feet 1 inch for totally blind competitors and 4 feet 4 inches for semi-sighted ones. The sack-racing, three-legged racing, wrestling, tug-of-war, rope-skipping, etc., all produced keen contests.

In addition to the usual regular Readings by the different teachers, the special Readings in the College Hall on Tuesday and Friday evenings to those over sixteen comprised selections from Vol. XX. of the "International Library of Famous Literature," and Dr. Saleeby's instructive Lectures on Health.

The terms' Socials produced excellent programmes. In addition to vocal and instrumental items the Senior Girls gave three scenes from Act V. of Tennyson's "Queen Mary," and a farce, "First Prize"; the Boys took "Julius Cæsar" and "Crazed," the latter being a very amusing musical sketch. It is now generally recognised that acting is a great aid in overcoming stiffness of motion and acquiring ease of manner, and it should be encouraged as much as possible.

The Committee have pointed out the urgency of our present needs, viz. :—the necessity of a new Pianoforte-tuning and Type-writing Building, a Sanatorium, and money for repairing the broken back of the Swimming Bath, and I can but echo their hope that those enjoying the blessing of sight will not allow this appeal to pass unheeded.

"If there be a pleasure on earth which angels cannot enjoy, and which they might almost envy a man the possession of, it is the power of relieving distress." Will you make that pleasure your own by remembering the Blind?

GUY M. CAMPBELL,
Principal.

Physical Department.

SWIMMING AND LIFE-SAVING.

In 1883, through the liberality of the late Dr. T. R. Armitage, a Bath 55ft. long, 25ft. wide, and from 3 to 6ft. deep, was added to the College equipment, and instruction in swimming was commenced by Mr. Guy Campbell.

In 1891 the Life-Saving Society, now the Royal Life Saving Society, was founded by William Henry. Mr. Campbell joined the Society, studied the methods, and in the following year successfully presented five pupils for the Certificate examination.

Their five names, marked by an asterisk, appear in the table below, and are those of the first blind people who ever qualified for ability to save life from drowning. The pupils underwent exactly the same tests as were required of sighted people, i.e., they were required to do the land drill, demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the Sylvester, Howard and Marshall Hall methods of Resuscitation (of late years these three methods have been superseded by the Schäffer system), swim 100yds. on the breast, 50yds. on the back, dive from the surface to a depth of 5ft., and bring up a weight, release oneself when clutched by the wrists, around the neck, or around the body, and then carry the patient by each of the five methods a distance of 10yds. for the certificate, and 20yds. for the medallion.

The number of Awards to date are 30 Certificates and 16 Medallions.

GRANDS	..	..	..	..	..	from 4s. to 5 6

It is requested that Single Tunings be paid for at the time the Pianoforte is tuned.

The proof of the efficiency of the College tuners is that an ever increasing number of ladies and gentlemen, especially members of the musical profession, as well as manufacturers and music dealers, employ them, both in London and the Provinces.

* Pianoforte Tuning as a profession for the Blind was introduced many years ago by Claude Montal, a blind pupil of the Paris School, and founder of the manufacturing house that bears his name. To him is due the scientific method of tuning now general both among the Seeing and the Blind. In France it is well known the Blind make the best tuners, and there they readily find employment on the same terms as the Seeing.

No tuner is granted a Certificate without serving an apprenticeship of several years, and undergoing a most thorough examination. For the examination the pupil not only tunes pianos for inspection, but is actually tested while at work; the manner of holding and managing the tuning hammer and damper with different varieties of pianos, including overstrung instruments, being carefully noted. Each pupil is also required to demonstrate his technical skill in making eyes, stringing, and ordinary light repairs, such as removing broken wrest pins, repairing hammer shanks, &c.*

Numbers of the College tuners are now successfully established at Acerington, Boston, Brighton, Cardiff, Carmarthen, Darlington, Dundee, Glasgow, Harrogate, Huddersfield, Kilmarnock, Leeds, Liverpool, London, Nottingham, Rochdale, Yarmouth, and many other towns. Residents in the above towns or neighbourhoods desirous of employing our tuners will be furnished with their addresses upon application to the Manager of the Department.

The following Testimonials, selected from among the many received, testify to the thorough work of our Certificated Tuners.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC, TENTENDEN STREET,
HANOVER SQUARE, LONDON.

I have much pleasure in stating that I have been fully satisfied with the tuning of a grand pianoforte, belonging to this Institution, by a member of the Royal Normal College and Academy of Music for the Blind, Upper Norwood. The instrument in question has been tested by me, and I find it is in perfect tune; indeed, exceptional care has been bestowed upon it. I have therefore no hesitation at all in cordially recommending the tuners of the College to the public.

A. C. MACKENZIE.

45, BEDFORD GARDENS, CAMPDEN HILL, W.

I have great pleasure in expressing to you my entire satisfaction with the way my Broadwood grand was tuned by one of the tuners from your College.

With kind regards, believe me very truly,

G. HENSCHEL.

* The perfunctory work of Blind pupils who merely linger two or three hours daily over a piano accomplishes very little towards fitting them for business. The pupil must be as diligent, energetic, and persevering as the seeing apprentice, and willing to give even more time for the necessary preparation.

During the past fifteen years I have had my pianofortes tuned by cerlificated tuners from the Royal Normal College for the Blind, and am able to say that they have always given me the utmost satisfaction. I should be sorry to place my instruments under other hands.

WILLIAM H. CUMMINS.

33, GREAT PULTENEY STREET, LONDON, W.

With regard to the blind tuner employed here, Jackson, I cannot speak too highly of his skill and industry. You will, perhaps, remember that when you and I were, in 1887, examined by the Royal Commission, I spoke hesitatingly about the practicability of our house engaging a blind tuner for the showrooms, and you commented upon my doubt. I am bound to say Jackson has shown me my fear was uncalled for, although, perhaps, excusable from the novelty, at that time, of the circumstance.

Yours faithfully,

JOHN BROADWOOD & SONS, LTD.

(The late) A. J. HIPKINS.

45, HONSEFERRY ROAD, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

In reply to your enquiry, we have pleasure in informing you that Kuyper is still with us. He is a very excellent tuner, and a very industrious young man.

John Gill, who died recently, had been a former tuner at our factory for years, and was both a clever tuner and an excellent foreman, managing those under him admirably, in spite of his disadvantages. We greatly regretted his death.

Yours faithfully,

JOHN BROADWOOD & SONS, Limited

(GEO. ROSE, late Director).

68, BUXTON ROAD, HUDDERSFIELD.

Re Testimonial.—We have much pleasure in testifying as to the abilities of Mr. Herbert Atkinson as a practical tuner. He has been in our employ for the past nine years, and we have always found him trustworthy and reliable, his work giving every satisfaction.

Yours faithfully,

A. HANSON & Co.

96, LEEDS ROAD, BRADFORD.

Dear Sir,

Respecting my tuners, I may say that Whitaker has now been in my employ about twenty-four years; Greaves about seventeen, and I have always found their work most satisfactory.

I remain, yours faithfully,

SAMUEL WALKER.

In the Smith Training College course, under the Education Department, the Students take the Training College Examination, and obtain their Certificates as School Teachers.
3. The Science and Practice of Music, including the training of Music Teachers, Pianists, Organists, Choirmasters, and Vocalists. The instruction afforded the pupils is equal to that given in the best Conservatoires for the Sceing. Those who intend to follow Music as a profession receive special training in the art of Teaching. Great attention is given to Chanting and the Training and Management of Choirs. All the pupils attend numerous Lectures, Recitals, and Concerts.

4. Technical Education, including Mechanical Training and Pianoforte Tuning. No Tuner is granted a Certificate without serving an apprenticeship of several years, and undergoing a thorough Mechanical Examination.

The College is undenominational and the pupils are taken to the Churches and Chapels in the vicinity, in accordance with the wishes of their parents or guardians. Religious Instruction.

For religious instruction the pupils are arranged in classes, Church of England and Nonconformist, under the charge of the resident teachers, while members of other sects are under the ministers of their own denomination.

The children in the Preparatory Department have separate houses and playgrounds, where all the arrangements are adapted to the special requirements of children. They come to the main school building for morning and evening prayers, school-classes, the pianoforte, singing and aural training, and also for all the Musical Recitals, Lectures, etc. They have classes in the Gymnasium and lessons in the Swimming Bath. This arrangement gives the children the advantages of the Cottage system and at the same time the resources of a large school. Kindergarten and Preparatory School.

Great attention is always given to hand training. The Blind, as a class, are helpless, and many children, nay, even those who are older, cannot dress themselves or eat properly at the table, when they enter the College. When such is the case, the first lessons are in dressing, eating, etc.; the children have Kindergarten, Modelling, Cane-weaving, Sloyd, and all the girls Sewing and Knitting. They also have lessons in learning locality and direction, for the intuitive faculty which guides some children is entirely wanting in others. Manual Training.

All the children have instruction in Class singing (until their voices change), special attention being given to breathing, pro- Musical Instruction.

nunciation, and ear-training. As soon as they understand the relation of numbers and can grasp the idea of rhythm, instruction on the Pianoforte begins : this is usually at seven or eight years of age. An elementary knowledge of Harmony is given in the piano lessons, and at about eleven years of age, the pupils are taught the subject in the regular classes.

Secondary Department.

In the Secondary Department some students prepare for University Examinations and others for the Preliminary Examination of the Board of Education. Those who pass the latter examination afterwards take the course in the Smith Training College. The pupils in the Musical Department join these students in some subjects, and thus obtain that mental culture which is so important to the success of blind musicians. The pupils have the use of a large and well selected library, containing 5,887 volumes. They attend University Extension Lectures, and Lectures to Teachers given under the auspices of the London County Council.

Musical Instruction.

For those over sixteen, the Course in Music includes instruction on the Pianoforte and Organ, and in Singing, Harmony, Counterpoint and Composition : the pupils are prepared for the Associate and Fellowship Examinations of the Royal College of Organists, and the Licentiate Examination of the Royal Academy in Singing and Pianoforte Playing. The Professors on the Staff are selected from those holding appointments at the Royal College of Music, Royal Academy of Music, and the Guildhall School of Music. In order to gain practical experience, those studying the organ take their turn at the morning and evening services, in accompanying the Choir in Hymns, Psalms and Anthems. Those studying the piano have careful instruction in technique and they are able to utilise that instruction in teaching their own pupils. They attend Lectures at which demonstrations are given of the best method of teaching children : they have articles read to them on different methods of teaching, and also gain experience by giving instruction to some of the younger pupils. The same holds true of those who are preparing to teach Singing.

The Musical Department is furnished with 60 pianos, five pipe organs and a large library of Braille music. In this department the indirect instruction gained in Recitals and Concerts proves an important part of the training. The weekly Recitals of Mr. H. L. Balfour, Mus. Bac., F.R.C.O., Mr. J. Friskin and Mr. H. Fryer, are attended by the whole school. Once a fortnight Mr. Stewart Macpherson lectures on Musical Composers and their works. The pupils also attend many of the best Concerts in London.

A large number of the pupils in the School Department learn <sup>Typewriting and Shorthand</sup> typewriting as soon as they become thoroughly proficient in reading and writing Braille. It is an invaluable help in writing notes of lessons, compositions, analyses, etc., besides forming the means of communication with a large number of sighted friends, and is an incentive to become a good letter writer. A few who show special aptitude for the work afterwards take an advanced or professional course, which includes shorthand writing, tabulating, duplicate and other copying, plays, specifications and the general routine requirements of a commercial house.

All the pupils receive thorough training in all forms of physical <sup>Physical Training</sup> culture which arouses their energy, stimulates their courage, and gives them independence to meet and overcome the many difficulties that lie in the path of the Blind who are seeking remunerative employment.

The Physical Department has a large Gymnasium provided with 55 distinct pieces of apparatus, embracing the best features of the Swedish, American and German systems. There is also a Skating Rink and Swimming Bath. Large Playgrounds afford plenty of free space where the pupils can engage in races and other athletic games; there are also a Cycle Track Swings, Tilts, Skittle Alleys, Giant Strides, etc.

Pianoforte Tuning.

Those pupils who show aptitude in hand-work, and have a good ear, are ready at 16, sometimes at 15, to begin a course in Pianoforte Tuning. The time spent in Pianoforte Tuning varies in the several grades. The beginners, who are usually still working in school and music, spend two hours per day, the next grade give the whole of the morning, and the third grade devote the greater part of the day, either to tuning or mechanical work. As it is necessary for a blind tuner, who wishes to be thoroughly qualified, to receive instruction also in Singing and on the Pianoforte, from four to six years are required before he will be ready to enter for his examination. As it is helpful for a blind man to have as many avenues as possible for securing employment, many of our tuners also qualify as Orgauists.

There are thirty pianos set apart for instruction and practice in pianoforte tuning. We have a great variety of instruments, in order that the pupils may become acquainted with the mechanical construction of various makers. In addition to these there are sixty pianos in the Musieal Department to be kept in tune and repair. There are five old pianos and four frames for teaching stringing, also models for teaching repairing, and others for showing the different actions used by different makers. Finally pupils are sent to London to gain further experience by working at various Piano Factories before being permitted to sit for their Certificate examination.

In no instance will more than this amount be remitted.

In cases in which the pupil is not entirely paid for by his <sup>Guarantee.</sup> or her friends, some reliable person must give a guarantee that the necessary clothing will be supplied ; that the pupil will be removed from the College during the summer vacations ; and, in case of death, that the funeral expenses will be paid.

Parents or friends may visit the pupils on the first Wednesday <sup>Visiting</sup> in November, February, April, and June between 2 and 5.30 p.m. <sup>Pupils.</sup> at other times, they should write to the Principal for an appointment. As a rule, it is not expected that more than two friends will visit any pupil on the same afternoon. When visiting the College, parents are earnestly requested not to bring young children with them. Friends cannot visit the pupils on Sunday; this rule is strictly enforced. Parents are specially requested not to bring or send sweets or eatables to the children. If the children go out with their parents, they must not undertake commissions for other pupils.
If, for any special reason, parents wish to see their children

LIST OF CLOTHING.

FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

Stays and tight-fitting dresses are prohibited. Dresses and other clothing must give ample room across the chest. Dresses narrow across the chest invariably lead to bad positions. Parents are especially requested to attend to this requirement, as the health very much depends upon proper clothing. The skirts of the school dresses must be at least  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches from the ground, to allow freedom in walking.

1 Sunday dress.

2 Week-day dresses.

1 Gymnastic suit, which should be purchased at the College, and must be renewed when necessary.

1 White petticoat.

2 Coloured petticoats.

2 Flannel petticoats.

3 Undervests (flannel or merino, high-necked and long-sleeved.

3 Chemises and drawers or three combinations.

3 Bodices (supplied with buttons for supporting the skirts.

3 Nightgowns.

Flannel dressing gown.

12 Pocket-handkerchiefs.

The rule in regard to the supply of clothing is imperative.

N.B.—The gymnastic outfit is indispensable, and should be obtained at the College, as it is important to have all the suits alike. If the clothing and gymnastic outfit are not provided, it will be the duty of the Principal to suspend the pupil. If parents will furnish 15s. for the first year, and 10s. each succeeding year, the pupil will be kept fully supplied with all that is required for the Physical Department.

  - 1 Warm coat or cloak.
- For those over eleven years old, one stiff black felt hat for Sunday.

REGULATIONS FOR VISITING THE COLLEGE

The College is situated at Upper Norwood. The principal entrance is in Westow Street. An outline Map, showing the position of the College and of the different Railway Stations in the neighbourhood, will be found on the next page.

The regular Visitors' Day is the first Thursday afternoon in each month, except during January, August, and September. Visitors will have an opportunity of inspecting the various departments from 3.15 to 5.15 p.m.

Parents or friends may visit the pupils on the first Wednesday in November, February, April, and June, between 3 and 5.30 p.m. If, for any special reason, parents wish to see their children at other times, they should write to the Principal for an appointment. As a rule, it is not expected that more than two friends will visit any pupil on the same afternoon. When visiting the College, parents are earnestly requested not to bring young children with them. Friends cannot visit the pupils on Sunday; this rule is strictly enforced. Parents are specially requested not to bring or send sweets or eatables to the children. If the children go out with their parents, they must not undertake commissions for other pupils.

The Principal can be seen on business by appointment.
